

Fraser Coast Hybrid Project

Construction Update

October 16, 2026

Current On-Site Activities Include:

- Security fence installation (Figure 1)
- Bulk earthworks - cut and fill around site
- Site clearing and mulching
- Preparation of laydown area
- Deliveries of construction material to site (Figure 2)
- BESS pad piling (Figure 3)

Figure 2: Laydown area adjacent to Gigoomgan Road for construction material delivery

Looking Ahead

Solar Farm

Site preparation works to continue including:

- Bulk earthworks - cut and fill
- Internal access tracks construction
- Boundary security fence installation
- Vegetation mulching, topsoil re-spread
- Deliveries of construction material

Want To Know More?

Sign up to the Fraser Coast Hybrid Project Monthly Newsletter at the email listed below

Figure 1: Post holes being prepared ahead of security fencing installation along the project's Southern boundary

Figure 3: Pile driving has begun at the BESS pad. The piles once in place support the modular batteries to be stood on the pad

BESS Battery

Early works to continue including:

- Substation foundation works
- Auger/drive piles
- Earthgrid